

Fort Cobb Feels Fury of Rampaging Washita Floodwater Again

At Fort Cobb the Washita river crested Friday morning sending waters out across the lowlands to the south of the city. Above water is over SH 9 south of the river bridge. Late in the morning it covered the highway for more than 1,000 feet and halted traffic.